

Please do not change my protection from unwanted callers. I appreciate the decrease in calls to my home during my personal time. It allows me more quality time with my children without unwanted interruptions. I have seen a significant decrease in unsolicited phone calls since the Indiana law was enacted to protect my privacy.

Please do not dilute my protections.